

DONNA LYNN BURTON

Donna Lynn Burton is a corporate executive with increasing responsibilities and varied positions within the financial services industry. She has an extensive background in all aspects of real estate including asset management, real estate liquidations, credit analysis, and marketing, coupled with excellent client relationship management in challenging situations.

Donna's current position as the Vice President at Operation HOPE in Harlem, NY, a non-profit organization focused on financial literacy to eradicate poverty in our life time, has given her valuable experience in the non-profit arena. She is responsible for the day-to-day management of a 4,000 square foot facility. This includes but is not limited to management of a $650MM operating budget, vendor relations, planning, staffing and fund development.

Prior to joining Operation HOPE, Donna a portfolio manager at Centro Properties and an asset manager at General Electric. She is also a lifetime member of the National Black MBA Association, Inc.

Education:

Masters of Business Administration - Clark Atlanta University
Bachelors of Arts - Boston College.

Email address: donnalynnburton@msn.com